The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner. This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

The Bible is a story of moving from darkness to light. The light of God is not merely present but guides us on our journeys. So, on this Third Sunday of Lent, we will reflect on how the Light of Christ guides us daily.

I look forward to seeing you this Sunday online or in person. Jill

Eagle Scout Court of Honor

The congregation is invited to the last Eagle Scout Court of Honor that will be held at our church. The date is March 7th at 11 a.m. in our sanctuary. This is the last scout from Troop 70 which is disbanding. Please come out and support Troop 70 which has been associated with this congregation for many, many years.

In his latest book Reckless Love, author and Pastor Tom Berlin writes that Jesus taught them to love neighbor first as a way to more deeply love God. In his exploration of Jesus' teaching and travels with his disciples, Berlin suggests that Jesus teaches us how to love God with heart, soul, mind, and strength by showing us how to love our neighbor. While many hope to learn to be better family, friends, leaders, and neighbors by finding a deeper relationship with God, what if becoming a better neighbor leads you to that deeper love of God?

In Reckless Love, you will consider your life, and learn how loving the people around you will completely renew your faith and give you a new experience of loving God.

Join the Adult Sunday School as they further explore Pastor Jill's recent sermon series on love. The class will start this study on March 15th and meets in Wesley Hall at 11 a.m. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. NOTE: the study has a companion book by the same name if you'd like to purchase it on your own for deeper study. It is not needed for the study itself.

Lenten Offerings

Some of you might remember the Lenten banks or coin folders that collected quarters as a Lenten offering. Though the church no longer provides this avenue to give, we do have Lenten offering envelopes by the sanctuary entrances if your Lenten practice is to give toward the ministry of Jesus through FUMCO as a

Lenten practice.

As many of you give something up for Lent as a discipline and/or sacrifice while following Christ to the cross, you might consider putting aside the funds you would have spent on that which you are giving up and offer that as a Lenten offering toward ministry that draws you and others into a deeper relationship with the Lord.

May your Lenten journey offer you a deeper relationship with the Great "I Am."

Historic Walk-Out Re-enactment

On Mar 21, Historic St. George's will host their annual Time Traveler event, re-enacting the Great Walk-Out of the late 1700s—one of the earliest civil rights protests in America—which led to the creation of Mother Bethel AME and St. Thomas African Episcopal Church. Doors open at 10 a.m. The event starts at 10:30 a.m.

This event is recommended for all Methodists. It is an essential and illuminating history lesson, which sparks discussion about how Methodist history can help us be better in the future. For more info email office@historicstgeorge.org.

NEAR the CROSS by Fanny-J. Crosby

Jesus, keep me near the cross,
There a precious fountain.
Free to all, a healing stream,
Flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross,
Be my glory ever,
'Til my raptured soul shall find
Rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul,
Love and mercy found me;
There the bright and Morning Star
Shed its beams around me.

In the cross, in the cross,
Be my glory ever,
'Til my raptured soul shall find
Rest beyond the river.

Near the Cross! O Lamb of God,
Bring its scenes before me;
Help me walk from day to day,
With its shadows o'er me.

In the cross, in the cross,
Be my glory ever,
'Til my raptured soul shall find
Rest beyond the river.

Near the cross I'll watch and wait,
Hoping, trusting ever,
'Til I reach the golden strand
Just beyond the river.

In the cross, in the cross,
Be my glory ever,
'Til my raptured soul shall find
Rest beyond the river.
